

R1 Ladbrokes Bet Ticker Maiden, 1200m

12:05

RACE SUMMARY

BRINKTOP LAD (1) had good late market support here four weeks ago and then was a huge run after racing wide without cover. The break between runs offsets the drop back in distance well into the campaign.

STARS IN THE NIGHT (8) has early speed and will give a sight out in front.

MASKED BANDIT (3) was third in the same race as Brinktop Lad last time after enjoying a much more economical run. Blinkers go on for his third career start.

ONE MORE PARTY (6) finished ahead of Masked Bandit when they met in early May. She raced wide there from an awkward alley, and she's again drawn the outside half of the track.

BANCA STAR (5) was solid upon resumption in Devonport and has been towards the head of the market at most of her Tasmanian runs.

RECOMMENDATION

The run of Brinktop Lad last time screamed "back me next start". The early price looks right and it would be a surprise to see him easy in the market given the trainer/jockey combo.

RACE SUMMARY

SEA NYMPH (8) seemingly didn't handle the synthetic on debut and then interestingly crossed Bass Strait for her second start where she was far from disgraced. It was a soft 7 at Cranbourne so any sting out of the track shouldn't be a big issue.

Blinkers go on HELLOT (4) who was solid in Devonport but is likely to be better suited on the grass.

BREW HORSE (1) went straight to 1400m first-up and was solid without threatening the placegetters. That form is tested in the opening race.

WE DESERVE THIS (6) was plain last time but has the number one stable rider and blinkers going on.

OXY DREAM (9) has her first start on the grass tackling the older horses as a 2YO.

RECOMMENDATION

Early favourite We Deserve This appears priced on potential rather than his racing to date. He is another Brunton/Pires horse that the market has taken a liking too but is certainly short enough which presents opportunities elsewhere on the assessed prices.

RACE SUMMARY

LE MONDE DE LUCAS (2) was a big effort after racing wide on speed last time and was well-supported from early markets.

RED ROGER (3) was just behind Le Monde De Lucas in the same race and a drifter, but hit the line well and he's obviously bypassed synthetic options closer to home to race here.

SUNSET GUN (5) was a little plain in a heat of the apprentice series, but Georgie Catania goes back aboard who steered the filly to her maiden win.

FIGHTING FAITH (4) was well in the market at her only start for Siggy Carr and could easily have come on from that run.

RECOMMENDATION

The scratching of Ghosted leaves Le Monde De Lucas and Red Roger as the standouts in my opinion. I'd be happy with a dutch play there if odds allow.

RACE SUMMARY

EVELINA ROSE (5) led throughout for a soft win second-up with that form tested earlier in the day. After two 1400m runs the mile seems suitable and she should be able to lead again.

SIGNAL HILL (7) kept her fitness up with a run in Devonport off the back of a huge performance here two starts ago. Expect her to be ridden closer to the speed than last start.

YARRA MASTER (3) has a 3kg swing on Signal Hill for finishing second to her in the apprentice series. He is an on pacer who should be a relatively straightforward ride for Erica Byrne Burke.

RYLSTONE (2) was smashed in the betting in Devonport but could only manage third after having every opportunity. Not sure back in distance is ideal.

SARDEGNA DEEL (6) has the blinkers back on and each-way claims despite this being short of her preferred trip.

RECOMMENDATION

Open race where any of the five runners marked $10 or less could easily win without surprising.

RACE SUMMARY

FREAK ON A LEAD (2) did what the market expected in Devonport but is likely to be better on the grass. Pires stays on and this looks like a nice progression point for him.

HOT RELATION (1) resumes having run in the quinella in two previous first-up starts. A potentially testing track may be a slight concern but he's been competitive against some of the state's better 3YO's.

JOHN'S LAD (3) was outclassed last start without being disgraced. This is more suitable.

SWINGIN' GEORGE (6) has been gelded since we last saw him. Look for any market lead as he has been plunged a few times in the past.

SEGUIMIENTOS (10) was scratched at the barriers last Sunday and finished just behind a few that run in the third race last start.

RECOMMENDATION

This looks a good race for Freak on a Lead but is short enough given Hot Relation is a big query runner first-up without a trial.

RACE SUMMARY

STRATEGIC AGENDA (10) enjoyed a good run on speed last time to just miss. She may lead here and has one of the best in the state on top for that role if she finds it.

DON'TBUCKME OFF (2) got a great ride last start to win in an on pace dominated affair. This isn't much harder despite the rise in class on paper.

KUROSET (7) also resumes having never missed a place at the track in seven runs. She'll likely be back from a wide barrier.

GYMPINS (9) had market support before being scratched at the barriers from the last Hobart meeting.

NEEDADOLLARBILL (4) was a last stride winner off a freshen and that form will be proven by this stage of the day. We will also know whether gate one is any negative.

RAVAGE (11) gains a start as first emergency and is certainly a live chance in a wide quaddie leg.

RECOMMENDATION

Deep race and a very wide quaddie leg. Kuroset looks very short in early markets off a map that could see back and wide. It will be worth monitoring the track pattern by this stage of the day.

RACE SUMMARY

GEE GEE TRUE STORY (4) has been racing very well in Hobart and wasn't suited last time on the synthetic, particularly with how that race panned out.

BOOM DOT COM (9) is a noted wet tracker who will be finishing hard but 1100m may be a bit short.

RUETTIGER (1) will carry 61kg even after the claim but is a 90 rater in a BM78. He was fine last time in a leader dominated race.

GEE GEE TRENDSETTER (5) rarely runs a bad race at the track and distance and won't be impacted by wet going.

SAVS FINALE (6) only battled away fresh but will likely have taken improvement as he drifted in the market there.

RECOMMENDATION

Boom Dot Com is a good horse and the soft track holds no fears but 1100m is certainly short of her best and looks very well found at $2.10 in early markets. The vale runner appears Gee Gee True Story off exposed form but several runners are early in their campaigns and could easily improve.

RACE SUMMARY

SHAMPZ AGAIN (1) has been a shade disappointing compared to market expectation in two runs this campaign but may be looking for the mile. He has only missed the quinella once in six previous Hobart runs.

LA DERNIER FILLE (9) was plunged late over 2100m but just missed. First and third from that race have since run well.

Back to the turf should help LUCA BRATZI (3) though he has little form on rain effected going.

FLOURISHING FUTURE (6) should lead and we'll know by the last race if that's an advantage for the day.

RECOMMENDATION

A race dominated by runners from the Brunton/Keys team and it may pay to keep an eye out for significant market moves.
